

Directions

By Rail

There is a frequent train service taking just 15 minutes travel time from Victoria and London Bridge Stations to East Croydon. From the station to Addington Palace it is only a 6 minute drive by taxi or courtesy car. It is also a 6 minute tram ride away on the New Addington route from the station to Gravel Hill tram stop outside the entrance to Addington Palace.

By Road

From Croydon to Addington Palace

Make your way to the top of Gravel Hill (A212) either from South Croydon via Coombe Lane or over Shirley Hills via Shirley Hills Road. Then follow the A212 down Gravel Hill for a distance of 400 metres to where a pedestrian footbridge crosses the dual carriageway by the entrance to the Palace drive.

From Dartford Tunnel to Addington Palace

A21 via the M25 clockwise, to Junction 4 then proceed towards Bromley. At Locksbottom turn left onto the the A232 towards Croydon. Follow the A232 for approximately 3 miles until you come to the first Coney Hall roundabout where you take the first exit left (A2022).

Continue to the third roundabout at Gravel Hill and turn right onto the A212 Gravel Hill Road (dual carriageway). Go to the top of Gravel Hill, and at the roundabout double back down Gravel Hill until the public footbridge crosses the road. Immediately by the footbridge turn left into Addington Palace driveway, the Palace is approximately 300 metres on the right.

From Heathrow (M4) to Addington Palace

Via M25 anti-clockwise to Junction 6 then A22 northwards towards Croydon to the roundabout at Wyteleafe Tavern Crossroads, take third exit (B270 to Warlingham) into Hillbury Road and proceed under the railway bridge. After just over half a mile bear sharp left into Tithe Pit Shaw Lane, continue up the hill to the end of the road. At the T-junction next to the Good Companions at Hamsey Green. Turn left (B269, Limpsfield Road) and continue to the next roundabout in Sanderstead village. Take the third exit (A2022 to Selsdon and Addington) into Addington Road. Continue through Selsdon to the roundabout at the bottom of Gravel Hill. Take the first exit (A212 to Shirley and Croydon, dual carriageway). Go to the top of Gravel Hill, and at the roundabout double back down Gravel Hill until the public footbridge crosses the road. Immediately by the footbridge turn left into Addington Palace driveway, the Palace is approximately 300 metres on the right.